

CLASSROOM LETTER

April 2025

Next Week...

Reading:

Next week, we conclude Dr. DeSoto and begin our next story, Judy Moody-Batty for Banana Peels. We will work on text to text comparison of story events with this story.

Math:

Unit 5 continues as we learn about reading temperature. We will have a review on Thursday and test on Friday over the chapter.

Science:

Next week, we will begin the first process of our science fair projects. This will include looking at possible topics, researching, and looking at a hypothesis to test.

Language Arts: We will continue figurative language and get a start on our poetry unit by the end of the week.

Social Studies: We will finish the scavenger hunt for states and capitals.

Reminders

Bookmobile at ACES on Monday, April 7th.

Upcoming Events

- April 8: Culver's Night from 5:00-8:00. Take a night off from cooking if you can!
