Take a Look at Next Week

Reading: Next week we will begin a new story about Roberto Clemente (great timing for a baseball story!) We will learn about him as a player and his life on and off of the field.

Math: Unit 1 Test will be on Monday over multiplication and division of 0-5, 9, and 10 facts. We then begin Unit 2 to learn strategies of the remaining fluency facts.

Science: Unit 2 is about animal traits and characteristics. We will become biologists to study behaviors and patterns of animal survival.

Language Arts: We will finish the final drafts of our narrative stories and do an Author's Chair to share. The next unit will be about verbs.

Social Studies: There will be a test over Unit 2 on Tuesday. We will do a study guide on Monday. Unit 3 will be over The Civil War.
