

MILITARY FAMILY SURVEY

Purpose of Collection:

The intent of this information is to be able to validate that the children of military families serving the two major military bases in Missouri and other related Department of Defense services are performing at high levels and are being well-served by their respective local educational agencies. This information is critical as Missouri's local, state and federal elected officials work toward assuring that the Department of Defense conclude the need for continuation of the operations of Ft. Leonard Wood Army Base at Waynesville and Whiteman Air Force Base in Knob Noster.
