

Mrs. Svendsen's Kindergarten News

Reading – We will continue learning ‘heartwords’ this week. Heartwords are words that we must learn by heart. This week’s words are a, to, and in. There will be 60 words to learn by the end of the year. I would suggest starting a collection of flashcards at home to practice.

Our theme this week will be The 3 Little Pigs. We will learn to compare and contrast different versions.

Handwriting – We will continue learning our lowercase letters this week with v, w, and t.

Math – This week we will practicing sorting items by different attributes. We will also learn to compare numbers using more than and less than. Continue practicing writing numbers 0-20 at home.

Grammar – This week we’ll continue identifying subjects in sentences.

Parent-Teacher Conferences – It was a pleasure meeting with each of you at conferences. Thank you for taking time to meet with me and taking an active role in your child’s education. I am grateful for all your support this year!

Halloween – Your child may wear their Halloween costume to school on Monday, as long as it is school appropriate and doesn’t distract others too much. The school costume parade will be at 2:15 in the gym, followed by our classroom party. You are more than welcome to attend.
