Homework

Kindergarteners will begin having homework on Mondays and Wednesdays. These will be simple alphabet pages. Please work together with your child to discuss the letter and the sound. Please let them attempt to spell the word themselves by sounding it out. Send back to school the next day, as these will be placed in their memory books.

Reading – We are continuing to work on beginning sounds. They are doing great at learning to identify these sounds and their letters! Keep practicing at home.

Our stories this week will focus on the seasons, with emphasis on fall.

Math – This week we will learn how to represent the numbers 6 and 7. Students should be able to write the numbers 0-7 correctly. Continue to practice counting to 100 by 1's and 10's at home.

Science – This week we will compare and contrast animals and plants.

Grammar – We will continue to study adjectives, which are words that describe things.

Handwriting – All kindergarteners should be able to write their first and last names correctly by the end of the year. This week we will learn V, W, X, and Y.

Book Logs – Book logs will be due the last day of the month, which is Friday. Each child's goal is 15 books, but they are encouraged to go above and beyond if they wish!

Folders and Homework – Please make sure to be checking and clearing out your child's folder each night. Thank you for helping them complete and return homework.

If you ever have any questions, comments, or concerns, please feel free to contact me at school or email me at asvendsen@avenuecityschool.org.
Have a wonderful weekend!
