

THIRD GRADE NEWS

Halloween Newsletter

Happy October! Here's what's brewing next week.

Red Ribbon Week: see flyer that was sent home for dress up days!

October 31: Halloween parties at 2:30. (There are 13 students)

*Party treats and plates: Alyssa Smith

*Drinks/Cups/Napkins: Shanda Durbin

*Party planner: Brooke Palmer

SPOOKY READING

We continue our story, The Chalkbox Kid to work on characterization, inferring, and plot in a story.

CANDY LANGUAGE ARTS

We are focusing on our verb unit next week, specifically on the use of irregular and helping verbs.

MONSTER MATH

Next week we will work on fluency and strategies of multiplication and division. We will throw in some Halloween word problems on Thursday, too!

CREEPY SOCIAL STUDIES

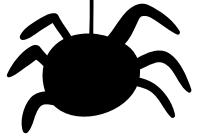

We will finish up our Civil War Interactive notebooks and take a test on Thursday. There will be a study guide sent home on Wednesday.

SPOOKY SCIENCE

In Unit 2 we are learning about traits of organisms, specifically identifying similarities and differences in species. We will be using what we have learned so far to explore and discuss patterns in organisms.

SPELLING/WORD WALL

wildcat
rewind
nightmare
highlight
title
siren
sight
grind slight knight
might sigh
libraries
bright
ivory
high
exciting

